

Teresa Dawn Taylor -Biography

Teresa is from the seaside town of Redcar in the North East of England. Now living in North Yorkshire with her young family of two children, a dog, a number of chickens and a fair few other 4 legged animals.

Both an Actor and a Writer with a background in law, having worked previously for a number of years as a public law Barrister at Fountain Chambers in Middlesbrough and a partner in a North East Law Firm specialising in Family Law.

The Writer/Director of Briefs Sitcom (FB, Twitter & Insta @BriefsSitcom) a multi series which commenced production in January 2020 and has had a lot of media attention. Founder of both Taylor Walker Films www.taylorwalkerfilms.com and Decree Talent Management www.decreetalentmanagement.com

Briefs has a cast of 20 and Crew of 15+ which has all been under Teresa's management.

Teresa is an award winning writer, most recently winning & receiving an honorary mention at the Festigious Los Angeles International Film Festival.

Teresa is also the writer of 'I exist' a Sci Fi drama currently in development, The Dog and Gun (-a Tv crime drama) & a dark comedy : It was an accident - the Astrid & Sasha show

Teresa works extremely well under pressure, is a natural problem solver and pro active. Fabulous with people and has super management skills. In the film industry over the last few years, she has worked freelance with other production companies and her roles have included work as assistant producer, locations manager, associate producer, 1st AD and she has created websites, ran social media, marketing & fundraising campaigns. Teresa has great natural business ability and drive, this combined with her legal & creative brain makes her an excellent choice for managing projects.

In addition to our in-house production of Briefs, Teresa is currently working Freelance as an Associate Producer of Shellshock Feature Film written by Mark Tillotson.

Actor Spotlight pin : www.spotlight.com/0051-8975-0365

